Adoport (Tacrolimus) - Anti-Rejection

Information for patients

- Adoport is the brand of tacrolimus. The brand should not change unless instructed by the transplant team.
- Taken 12 hours apart (such as 08:00am and 8:00pm or 09:00am and 9:00pm, or whatever suits you best).
- If you miss a dose you can still take it, as long as it is at least six hours until the next dose. Do not double dose.
- Do not take on the morning of transplant clinic days until you have had your blood test. Bring your Adoport with you and take after bloods.
